On the Cover

The beauty of May in Finland was on full display after the American Rhododendron Society Convention last year in Bremen, Germany. Richard and Susan Bauer also took a post-convention tour of more gardens in Finland. A sampling of the wealth of beautiful private gardens and parks they visited during both tours are shown in Richard’s article beginning on page 52.

This colorful scene is from the Fuksinpuisto Park, where Finnish hybrids were planted for cold-hardiness evaluation. Photo courtesy of Rick Bauer.
