On the Cover

Spring will already be in bloom by early March in Texas, just in time for the 2020 National Convention in Houston. Shown here are two Southern Indica type azaleas that will be blooming in home and public gardens. The lovely pink azalea in the front is ‘George Lindley Taber’ named posthumously in 1948 for the owner of the Glen Saint Mary Nurseries in Glen Saint Mary, Florida (near Jacksonville). ‘Red Formosa’ is in the background. Both grow to be large, reliable shrubs, perfect for anchoring large garden landscapes. Photo courtesy of Marcia Wood.
